

Watershed Information, Knowledge and Data (WIKD) – Exploring Solutions

When: October 19th 9:00am – 3:00pm

Where: Siem Lelum Gymnasium – Dining Hall 5574 River Road, Duncan BC

Time	Workshop Element	Intended Outcomes
8:45am	Light Breakfast & Coffee/Tea - Refresh and prepare for the day
9:00am	Traditional Welcome	Acknowledge the land and territory of Cowichan Tribes
9:15am	Agenda Review & Facilitated Introductions	Understanding flow of the day and attendee's role and interaction with WIKD
9:15am	Role of TK in Decision Making	Context Setting - Understand UNDRIP, Evolving and Role of FN and TK in Decisions
9:45am	WIKD and Watershed Management	Context Setting - The current state of Watershed Information, Knowledge, and Data in the Cowichan region - what initiatives is WIKD informing?
10:30am	Refreshment Break - Refresh and prepare for next session
10:45am (90 Min)	Data Hubs, Portals, and Platforms	Explore examples of current portals, platforms, hubs and data collection centers: Understanding the Strengths and Weaknesses from a Watershed Management and Planning Perspective with First Nations.
12:15pm	Catered Lunch & Networking - Refresh and build relationships
1:00pm	Data Hubs, Portals, and Platforms Continued....	Explore examples of current portals, platforms, hubs and data collection centers.
1:30pm (60 Min)	Optimizing a Solution for WIKD for the Cowichan Region – Facilitated Round Table Working Groups	What would be the ideal aspects of a Solution for the Region to address: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Access to WIKD ● Quality Data to Inform Decision Making ● Regional Collaboration ● Training/Capacity ● Data Autonomy
2:30pm	Round Table Feedback Loops	Summary of Recommended Elements of WIKD Solution for the Cowichan Region
3:00pm	Next Steps & Close	