

Goals of St'seelhtun and the Forest Nature Programme

- Providing a Quw'utsun Mustinuhw (Cowichan People) culturally based salmon learning experience
- Locally based St'seelhtun and Forest Nature interpretation programme
- Providing a programme linking forest health, restoration, and st'seelhtun
 - Providing a completely outdoor experience

2023-2024 Cowichan Land Trust St'seelhtun and the Forest Nature Programme

- Huy tseep q'u to the Elliott family for hosting the programme on their land.
- Huy steep q'u to Canadian Heritage River Society, BC Parks and PSF for the funding to do three rounds of St'seelhtun and Forest interpretation programmes in 2023 and the spring of 2024. A total of 411 children and 42 adults attended these programmes.

- Team:
 - Elder, T'uwahwiye', Philomena Williams
 - JR Elliott, Cowichan Hatchery Manager
 - Ken Elliott, Ken's Native Plant Nursery
 - Colleen Elliott, safety officer
 - Heather Wright and staff, DFO
 - Stephanie Cottell, Cowichan Land Trust, ED, administrator of project
 - Genevieve Singleton, nature interpreter, organizer of project, Polster Environmental Services

Cowichan River Hat

CAUTION
SLIPPERY
WHEN WET

